President's Report

Hi All,

As you all know by now, our first events for the year, our Khanacross was cancelled because of the heavy rain we have had in the last week or so.

I have spoken to Shane Houlahan about doing some work on our Autocross track and the Offroad / Rally Sprint areas to see if we can get some stability into the surfaces. They certainly need some serious effort.

I have also been told by the owners of the piggery that we won't be allowed to use their area again so we are going to have to utilise the track in a better way for us.

The next event on the calendar for us is the Eddington Sprints on March 21. We will need officials for the starting area and the marshalling area so I hope some of you can help out on the Saturday. Your support will be much appreciated.

February 28 saw myself and Chris attend the Motor Sport Australia State Presentation Awards night at the Keysborough Golf Club. A great night was had by all and the Bendigo Car Club was presented with a 75 year Attainment Certificate to hang on our wall in the clubrooms.

Hope to see you all at Thursday's General Meeting.

Yours in Motorsport

Kevin Symons

President.

Events:

21st March Eddington Historic Sprints.

In the News: -

- Scrutineering: Thinking of becoming a Scrutineer? It's a very crucial role within Motorsport. You ensure vehicles comply with Motorsport Australia's regulations thus enabling safe, fair and fun participation. To become a scrutineer go to Motorsport.org.au/officials.

- Australian Taylor Gill and his co-driver Dan Brkic made an exciting debut in WR2 by finishing 4th at Rally Sweden. World Rally Championship 2 (WRC2) is the premier support category in the WRC, serving as a stepping stone toward Rally 1 class racing. It features production-based Rally2 cars designed for privateer teams and professional drivers
